Brazilian Cotton

Dear Mr. Carvalho,

We write with reference to your letter dated August 21, 2023, pertaining to the above-mentioned matter.

We appreciate the detailed contents and information provided of practices with regards to cotton production in Brazil. Please note, Interloop Limited has not directly imported ginned cotton from the two cotton producers mentioned in your letter, namely, Horita Group and SLC Agri'cola and hence any allegations of the same are hereby denied.

With regards to import of cotton from Brazil, our organization sources the same from [ICA International Cotton Association and BCI-Better Cotton Initiative) authorized and certified merchants and shippers. We would assume that these locally authorised and certified supplier merchants and shippers have been verified based on thorough checks and balances confirming their compliances to the local laws and regulations.

We understand and acknowledge the unfortunate incidents mentioned in your letter and ensure through background re-checks subject to the available data and access to our organization in this regard going forward.

In view of the above, we expressly prohibit any direct or indirect use, reference to, or other employment of our name in this matter.
